WHO BOMBED JUDI BARI?

Fri 9:00p

Mary Liz Thomson

Judi Bari and Darryl Cherney were falsely arrested for car-bombing themselves on May 24, 1990 while on an Earth First! musical organizing tour for Redwood Summer. They sued the FBI for violations of the First Amendment, claiming the FBI knew they were innocent but arrested them to silence them. Having survived the bomb but now stricken by cancer, Judi Bari, a leader of the movement to save California's old growth redwoods, gives her on-camera, deathbed testimony about the attempt on her life and her colorful organizing history with the radical environmental movement Earth First!

X-BAND TRANSMISSION: A PARANORMAL RESEARCH DOCUMENTARY

Sat 12:00p

Mario Escobar

X-Band Transmission is the story of a group of strangers with different backgrounds in the paranormal who come together in a hotel room in San Francisco to send a signal to the future and to perhaps receive a message that may alter the present. Will these strangers reach into the future? Will they have a premonition that may affect the present? Can they tap into the realm between the spiritual and the physical through this paranormal vortex? Watch and see as this fascinating journey that defies description, 'X-Band Transmission' is a film for any one with an interest in the unknown, and a thirst for the theater of the absurd in the realm of the surreal where nothing is normal and everything is possible.

SF ART DOC: WORKING CLASS (FEATURING MIKE GIANT)

Sat 4:40p

Jeffrey Durkin

Working Class is a feature documentary that builds upon 13 years of tattoos, art and friendship between San Francisco artist Mike Giant and San Diego artist Mike Maxwell. Loosely based on Charles Dickens book A Tale of Two Cities, the two Mikes discuss themes found in Dickens 1859 novel that are just as relevant today: Religion, War, Family, History and Art. Through these chapters the audience gets an intimate look at how the world shapes the art they produce. At its core, Working Class is a buddy story that delves into the lives of the artists while examining how the creative process intersects with friendship.

DONKEY LOVE

Sat 10:30p

Daryl Stoneage & Tyler Chandler

Funny, shocking and controversial, Donkey Love is a documentary that introduces the unknown tradition of Colombians having sex and falling in love with donkeys. It starts off as a rite of passage ritual that fathers initiate with their sons and is carried on into their adulthood where men often end-up cheating on their wives with donkeys. Colombians believe that boys should practice having sex with donkeys to prepare themselves for women, that it makes their penises bigger and also that it prevents them from becoming homosexuals. This cultural practice is so widely accepted in Colombia that musicians have written songs about it, an author has written a book about it and there is even a festival that celebrates it.
